An  RPG Company

Zensar stands out as a premier technology consulting and services company, embracing an 'experience-led everything' philosophy. We are creators, thinkers, and problem solvers passionate about designing digital experiences that are engineered into scale-ready products, services, and solutions to deliver superior engagement to high-growth companies. This full lifecycle capability – from experience to engineering to engagement – is what makes us unique. This integrated approach also means that we harness the power of technology, creativity, and insight to deliver impact — ensuring our work focuses not just on technology but also on the people who use it.

Zensar is headquartered in Pune, India. We operate in three continents across North America, Europe and Africa with 30 + delivery locations across the globe including Seattle, Princeton, Cape Town, London, Singapore, Johannesburg, Durban and Mexico City.

With 22 years of presence in South Africa, Zensar embodies a diverse and multi-dimensional organization. We unite across geographies and skill sets to deliver products and services that are value-driven, environmentally conscious, and human-centered. Additionally, our services extend beyond South Africa, further enhancing our global reach. Currently, we have around 1700 employees with an annual turnover of around R 1.3 billion for the F.Y 2023-2024, ending March 2024.

Zensar Africa is led by Executive Vice President and Head - Africa, Mr. Harish Lala, an accomplished executive with over 25 years of experience. He has a proven track record of building new markets in Africa, consistently growing the business for 15 years at Zensar.

Mr. Amol Chandolikar is the Vice President and Regional Head for South Africa. He has over 22 years of progressive experience in building business across India and South Africa. Previously, he led and scaled the banking and financial services business for Zensar in South Africa.
